Helping You Succeed

Learn How to Be More Veteran-Friendly

Veterans today also need your support. We're hosting a special luncheon on June 10 at Heidi's Events & Catering where guests will learn how they and their businesses can be more veteran-friendly. Organizations presenting brief overviews of their services include the Arizona Department of Veteran Services, Arizona Coalition for Military Families, ESGR, Pat Tillman Veterans Center, ASU Alumni Veteran's Chapter and the Tempe Chamber's Military Affairs Committee. You Can Finally, Actually, Really, Truly Post GIFs on Facebook

Molly McHugh, Wired

Facebook, after much, much ado, has finally added GIF support. And no, not the halfway-workaround that it launched two years ago. There's now a real way to post a GIF in your status update, making words just that much less necessary to this whole internet thing. More >>

Tempe Chief: Debate on Policing is Good for Communities

By Tom Ryff, Tempe Police Department

A great debate about the role of policing is taking place across our nation, and as a career police officer, I believe it needs to occur. More >>

Beware of Your Leadership Strengths

By Dan McCarthy, SmartBlogs

When it comes to leadership, is there such thing as too much of a good thing? There sure can be. In fact, just about any weakness can be attributed to one or more strengths that are overused. More >>
